Divas Dish for Glidden Homestead April 21, 2012

Thirty-five "celebrity" women chefs shared their family recipes with about 300 attendees at the 4th annual fund-raising event for the Glidden Homestead, held at NIU's Barsema Alumni & Visitors Center. Delicious food, raffles and a silent auction all helped raise about $10,000 for restoration efforts at the Glidden Homestead. Watch this site for the date of next year's Divas Dish annual event!

Glidden Homestead board president, Svetlana Henrikson, greets guests as Kathy Siebrasse, past president and Divas Dish co-chair looks on.

State Senator Christine J. Johnson returned again as a Divas chef, featuring Chocolate Peanut Butter Addiction.

Brooke Hiland's Bacon Jam was a crowd pleaser. Her helper is Sylvia Higham.

Dr. Kristy Marczewski made fabulous pumpkin rolls.

Carole Fawaz of Sunshine Scoop Shoppe & Bakery.

Janet Glidden created delicious vegetarian barbecued beans.

Sarah Glidden DeMink provided samples of her Aunt Jessie Glidden's broccoli salad.

State Rep. Bob Pritchard chats with chef Katherine Gannon. Pritchard's wife, Mary, has participated in Divas Dish since its first year.

Blackened tilapia and loaded burgers from Schnucks Supermarket were a big hit!

Deanna Watkins, owner of Sweet Dream Desserts, served a mashed potato bar.

Kishwaukee Community Hospital featured homemade hummus.

Brienne Wackerlin & Sara Kerner with Marcia Wilson's "Not My Grandmother's Soup."

Fran Osenberg and Jennifer Pigott serve BBQ meatballs and Italian Beef.

Krissy & Jayne Higgins with homemade chips and salsas.
